To the Congregation of Hamilton Square Baptist Church:

I will soon be meeting with the leadership of our congregation to begin discussions on a transition of leadership for our church over the coming months. During this time, I will continue to serve in full capacity as your senior pastor with the possibility of assuming a different role in the future. That will be determined later. There is no present need to be hurried in our deliberations, but it will be timely and wise to begin now to carefully plan and set things in order for the future ministry here at Hamilton Square. None of this can be properly achieved without the help and blessing of God. Fervent prayer will lay the foundation for divine undertaking.

The future is as bright as the promises of God! God is with us! To Him be all the glory!

My Love to you all,

Pastor Innes
